EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

The title has been amended to read:

--METHOD FOR DIAGNOSING PREECLAMPSIA BY DETECTING hCRH mRNA --

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The closest prior art of Inder et al (The Journal of Clinical Endocrinology & Metabolism. 2001. 86: 5706-5710) teaches the analysis of hCRH protein levels in the plasma of pregnant women. Inder (see abstract) states that "a single measurement of plasma CRH, toward the end of the second trimester, may identify a group at risk for preterm delivery, but over 50% of such deliveries will be unpredicted. These data do not support the routine clinical use of plasma CRF as a predictor of preterm labor." Inder does not teach the analysis of hCRH mRNA levels in the plasma or serum of pregnant woman and does not teach that an increase in the amount of hCRH mRNA in the plasma or serum of pregnant woman, as compared to control, non-preeclamptic pregnant woman, is diagnostic of risk of preeclampsia. Accordingly, the prior art does not teach or suggest the presently claimed methods for diagnosing or predicting preeclampsia in a pregnant woman wherein the methods comprise detecting an increase in the amount of hCRH mRNA in the plasma or serum of a pregnant woman, as compared to control, non-preeclamptic pregnant woman, wherein an increase in the amount of hCRH mRNA in the plasma or serum of the pregnant woman indicates preeclampsia or an increased risk of developing preeclampsia.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Carla Myers whose telephone number is 571-272-0747. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday (6:30-5:00).

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Ram Shukla can be reached on 571-272-0782. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
